

College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Team Award

Purpose: To recognize a team of faculty/staff who have made a significant contribution to the missions of research, extension or teaching in the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences at Iowa State University. Interdisciplinary and/or interdepartmental efforts should be recognized and rewarded.

Eligibility: College of Agriculture and Life Sciences faculty/staff at ISU.

Nature of the award: $500 to the team.

Number of awards: One

Criteria: Documented evidence of outstanding achievement by a team of faculty/staff.

Guidelines for Submitting Nominations for the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Team Award

The following guidelines are intended help departments make their nominations as strong as possible.

1. The Team Award is designed to recognize a collective project to build programs to solve problems.
2. Begin with a statement of no more than three pages describing why this team deserves the award for which it is being nominated. The purpose of this statement is to persuade those reviewing the nomination that your team is deserving of the award. Cite specific examples of relevant behaviors, publications, and recognition whenever possible.
3. Include a brief vitae of each team member. (4 pages maximum)
4. Include statements from individuals inside or outside the university who are in a position to comment on the team's activities. (4 letters maximum)

Applications are to be submitted electronically to the College of Agriculture and Life Sciences Awards Committee, 130 Curtiss Hall, by the third Tuesday in November. Nominations are to be coordinated with the department awards committee.

Updated Aug 2008