

General Characteristics of the Space Food

Space Food Vocabulary Worksheet

Match each word with the appropriate description.

- | | |
|---|---|
| _____ 1. Astronaut | a) A heat process that permits food to be stored at room temperature |
| _____ 2. Thermostabilized | b) An environment (moon or Mars) where gravity's effects are greatly reduced |
| _____ 3. Rehydrate | c) A vehicle that stays in space and circles Earth |
| _____ 4. Microgravity | d) A person trained to travel and work in space |
| _____ 5. International Space Station | e) The addition of water to dehydrated food |
| _____ 6. Space Shuttle | f) A vehicle that travels to space and circles Earth while experiments are conducted, then returns to Earth |

Complete the phrase.

- a) A very small piece broken from some foods is a _____.
- b) A portion of food which could be consumed in one bite is _____.
- c) A food from which the water has been removed to be lightweight and easy to store is called _____.
- d) Food that must be squeezed from the package to be eaten is called _____.
- e) Food that does not stimulate the appetite or desire for food is called _____.

Instructor:

Juan Cadenillas

Iowa State University, Ames, IA 50011
